(c) the steps taken by Government to withdraw upper ceiling on payment of bonus ?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI SHARAD YADAV) : (a) to (c) The Payment of Bonus Act was enacted in 1965. Originally the Act provided for an eligibility limit of Rs. 1600 p.m. of wages and calculation ceiling of Rs. 750 p.m. which were raised to Rs. 2500 and Rs. 1600 respectively in 1985 (w.e.f. 7-11-85). The ceilings were subsequently raised to Rs. 3500 and Rs. 2500 respectively in 1995, effective 1-4-93. The Consumer Price Index Numbers for Industrial Workers (base 1960 = 100) for the year 1965 was 132 and for 1985, it was 625. The index as on 1-4-93 with new CPI base (1982) was 243 which when converted to 1960 base comes to 1198. The latest CPI at 1982 base is 468 for the month of October, 2001 which works out to 2307 at 1960 base.

The Government is seized of the demand regarding the amendment of Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 for raising the eligibility and calculation ceilings. The issue is under examination in the light of its wide ranging repercussions as the benefits of bonus will have to be extended to, besides the Private Sector, to the employees of PSUs (both Central and States), Central and State Governments and autonomous organizations resulting in huge financial burden to the Government exchequer.
